

New HowDidiDo Tee Sheet

Overview

We have added the Casual Booking Tee Sheet into HowDidiDo and incorporated Competition Booking into the new Tee Sheet with a new look matching the current casual booking, this will bring booking all into one place.

HowDidiDo

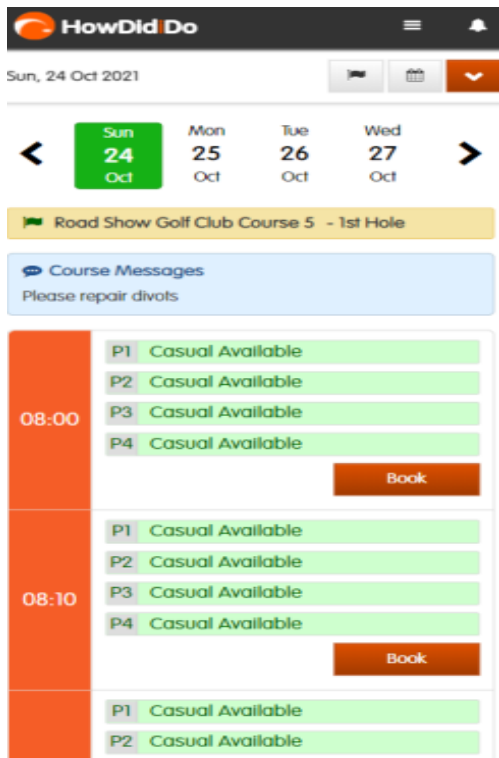

- Updated the Today's Golf timeline tile into include "Booking"

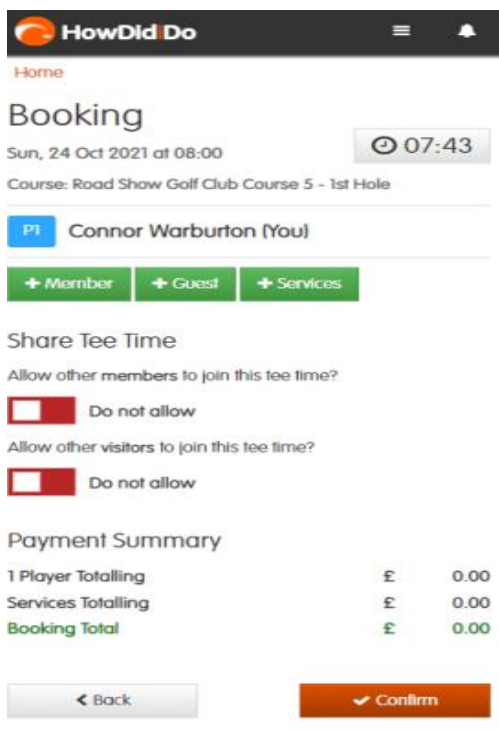

- Updated HowDidiDo > Booking page to have the Booking Calendar and Bookable Competitions

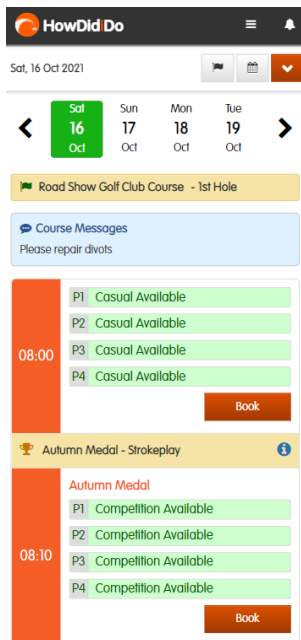

- Added the Tee Sheet from the Hub into HowDidiDo

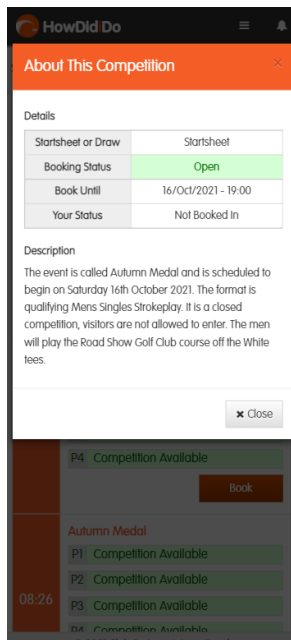

- Added Casual Booking to HowDidiDo

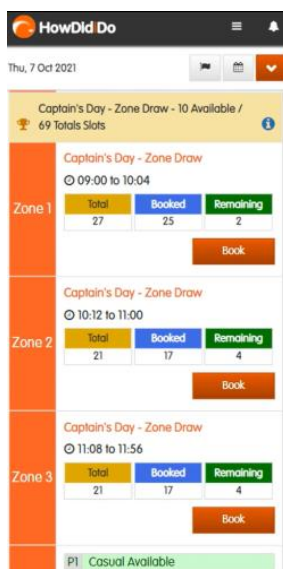

- Competitions now show on the tee sheet as being available to book rather than as a reservation

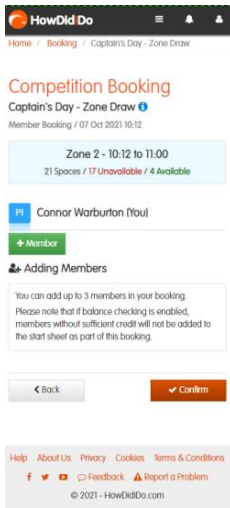

- We have added the competition information that was previously at the top of the start sheet into the 'i'

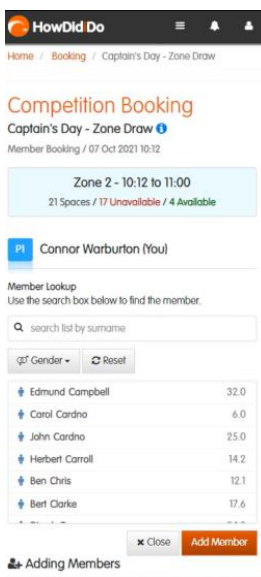

- For Zones and Shotgun, we have updated the times to be Zones and Holes

- We have updated the competition booking configuration to be like casual booking

- We have added the same '+ Members' functionality into competitions that we use in casual booking

- We have added in a Competition Booking Confirmation

- Users will be able to clearly see their booking with the yellow highlight and will be able to "Cancel Booking" from the tee sheet

- Competitions which are created on a course which isn't enabled for Casual Booking or for a day which has no tee times generated then the competition will show in 'Bookable Competitions' but with a button for 'Open Start Sheet' rather than 'Open Tee Sheet'. When selected this will load a competition start sheet which looks the exact same as the tee sheet without some of the tee sheet functionality. When 'Book' is selected the same new competition booking is used.

- Open Competitions will
- Booking from the Hub will be redirected to HowDidDo and adverts will be hidden for redirected users
